November 4th, Fontairiebleau:

The colonial produce placed on the market at the Leipzig fair was conveyed in 700 carts from Russia; which means that to-day the whole trade in colonial produce goes through Russia, and that the 1200 merchantmen that were masked by the Swedish, Portugese, Spanish, and American flags, and that were escorted by twenty English men-of-war, have in part discharged their cargoes in Itussia.

£8d» Paris:

(To General Savary.) In to-day's number the Journal de VKmpire atateB that I was having a statue of the Emperor of Austria made in Vienna, doubtleiw with a view to placing it in some public itquare of Paris. Don't faU to tell M. Etienne that the next time he allowtt mieh stuff to get into print I shall discharge him from the editor-ihip of the paper.

The Germanii are no notoriously mlly that I am tur-priited that Etienne who ought to know better* jthould be taken in. Why not repeat, on the authority of the German papery that I kisa the ulipper of the Prineena Louiwt, whom I don't even know ? There in a thing with extreme absurdity to recommend it. It m the newt«paj:x»rj« of Park that should state what I am doing, not the giuHtfjt t»f Vienna.

Dtwmbtr 5th. The Russiww are throwing up many earthworks on the Dwina and even on the Dniester.

(To Champagny.) I^t me have on the 15th of December a statement showing the «trrngth of the troopi of the Confederation of tlie Rhine, tnatuding the Duehy of Warsaw, anothw for ^bie Rumuan army* and another Icwr tJbe Austrian.
